

THE ANGEL ON THE HILL
a Christian fable

Bald Hill is barren. And quite ugly. As the only elevation within the town limits or anywhere else for miles around, it's impossible to miss. No wonder the residents hate it and want to have it leveled.

But when the hill unexpectedly comes alive with foliage and a huge angel statue mysteriously appears on top, the effect on Pastor Russell Rusk and his wife Mia, the hill property's owners, is amazing.

But the effect on the townspeople and social media observers everywhere is phenomenal.

How will it affect you?
